

Pets are a great addition to any family, especially families with children. This is an example of an inline list that lists different pets: cats, dogs, fish and hamsters. Many people who have pets enjoy playing with them.

A balance diet is important to a healthy lifestyle. It is important to eat lots of fruit and vegetables. This is an example of an inline numbered list that lists different fruits: (i) apple, (ii) orange, (iii) watermelon and (iv) cherry. Some fruits are available all year while others grow in just a single season.
